

Cajun Iron Workers • QHSE Management System • Appendix D

2023 Objectives and Targets

Quality, Health, Safety, and Environmental Objectives and Targets for Calendar Year 2023

Code: Q = Quality H = Health S = Safety E = Environment

Category	Objective	Target	Activity	Responsible
Q	Improve the availability of the Grande Crane at FHL	Train additional personnel on operation of the Grande Crane	1. Training and mentor program for new operators	QHSE / Operations
H/S	Continue efforts to reduce snag hazard incidents	Raise aware of snag hazards, recognition of snag hazards, mitigation of hazards, and dangers of snag hazards to reduce incidents/injuries by 10%	1. Incident sharing 2. Leading indicators monthly report 3. Bulletins shared 4. Snag hazard committee	QHSE / Operations
S	Continue the pursuit of "Goal Zero"	Maintain a TRIR lower than the industry average NAICS Code 488320	1. Leading Indicators 2. Training 3. Incident Learnings and Sharing 4. Bulletins 5. Continual Improvement	QHSE / Operations
S	Identify potential pinch point injuries around hands	Reduce the number of hand/finger injuries that were a result of pinch points	1. Incident sharing 2. Bulletins 3. Leading Indicators 4. Focus on Hazard Recognition and Body Positioning	QHSE Department
E	Utilize rapid decent gauges where applicable	Reduce the severity of hydraulic oil spills from equipment	1. Determine if the rapid decent gauges can work with CIW equipment • Install rapid decent gauges on different types of equipment for testing	Maintenance / Operations
E	Upgrade Yard and Pole Lighting to LED	Reduce energy consumption	1. Synergy Building Solutions to work with VP of US Port Operations and the Maintenance Department Manager	Operations / Maintenance

References

Type	Title	Number
QADocument	Objectives and Targets	CW/QHSEMS/4/1981