

Cajun Iron Workers • QHSE Management System • Appendix D

2025 Objectives and Targets

Quality, Health, Safety, and Environmental Objectives and Targets for Calendar Year 2025

Code: H = Health S = Safety E = Environment

Category	Objective	Target	Activity	Responsible
S/E	Prevent hose damage on cranes	Reduce the number of busted hoses by 10% (2024:TBD)	1. Share incidents 2. Publish leading indicators in monthly reports 3. Yard Coordinators and Foremen complete additional field observations 4. Maintenance personnel complete additional checks 5. Crane operators conduct daily pre-use inspections	QHSE/ Operations/ Maintenance
H/S/E	Prevent primary loss of containment from overfilled chemical storage tanks	Reduce total volume released from over filled chemical storage tanks to zero (2024: 1600gals)	1. Maintenance Department Manger and VP of US Port Operations work together to have alarms installed.	Operations/ Maintenance
H/S	Prevent damages and injuries from snag incidents.	Reduce the number of snag incidents while moving cargo by 10% (2024: 20)	1. Share incidents 2. Publish leading indicators in monthly reports 3. Share Bulletins 4. Supervisors and QHSE personnel make additional field observations 5. Forklift and Crane Mentors specifically help with observations and training	QHSE/ Operations
H/S	Prevent property damage during forklift activities	Increase the number of forklift lifts between incidents (2024: 11,538)	1. Share incidents 2. Publish leading indicators in monthly reports 3. Share Bulletins 4. Supervisors and QHSE personnel make additional field observations 5. Forklift Mentor specifically help with observations and training	QHSE/ Operations
S	Continue pursuit of "Goal Zero"	Maintain a TRIR lower than the industry average NAICS code 488320 (2024:TBD)	1. Share incidents 2. Publish leading indicators in monthly reports 3. Share Bulletins 4. Keep training up to date 5. Continuous Improvement	QHSE/ Operations

References

— Printed copy. For the latest revisions, check UniSea IMS —

Type	Title	Number
QADocument	Objectives and Targets	CIW/QHSEMS/4/1981

Exported by: Keith Stacom/ECO @2025-02-14T14:49:57.007-06:00