

Cajun Iron Workers • QHSE Management System • Appendix D

2026 Objectives and Targets

Quality, Health, Safety, and Environmental Objectives and Targets for Calendar Year 2025

Code: H = Health S = Safety E = Environment

Category	Objective	Target	Activity	Responsible
H/S	Prevent damages during crane operations	Increase the number of lifts between incidents (2025: 14,56)	1. Share incidents 2. Publish leading indicators in monthly reports 3. Share Bulletins 4. Keep training up to date 5. Supervisors and QHSE personnel make field observations 6. Crane mentors specifically help with observations and training	QHSE/ Operations
H/S	Prevent property damage during forklift operations	Increase the number of forklift lifts between incidents (2025: 22,384)	1. Share incidents 2. Publish leading indicators in monthly reports 3. Share Bulletins 4. Keep training up to date 5. Supervisors and QHSE personnel make field observations 6. Forklift Mentor specifically help with observations and training	QHSE/ Operations
S	Continue pursuit of "Goal Zero"	Maintain a TRIR lower than the industry average NAICS code 488320 (2025: TBD)	1. Share incidents 2. Publish leading indicators in monthly reports 3. Share Bulletins 4. Keep training up to date 5. Continuous Improvement	QHSE/ Operations
E	Improve environmental compliance	Reduce non-conformities per quarter by 5%	1. Environmental reports project created 2. Quarterly non-compliance report submitted by the Environmental Department 3. Compliance report shared in Managers meetings, QHSE Staff Meetings, and weekly safety meetings 4. Chouest Academy video on proper labeling and storage of waste drums	QHSE/ Operations

References

Type	Title	Number
QADocument	Objectives and Targets	CIW/QHSEMS/4/1981